-Students must complete 9 courses, 5 of which must be completed at Amherst College. Use this table to plan your major. Fill out the course name beside each number, and mark each category that applies. All majors also must complete a capstone portfolio.

-To fulfill a distribution category (eg U.. Latinx, Latin America or Caribbean), at least 50% of the course must be dedicated to that subject matter

-A research methods course must focus predominantly on learning research methods.

-Humanities include literature and the arts. Social Sciences include fields such as Sociology, Political Science, and Psychology. The Professor of a course will determined whether to count each history as social science or humanities, but can't count it as both.

( Categorization of courses in Interdisciplinary Depts such as BLHumanities include literature and the arts. Social Sciences include fields such as Sociology, Political Science, and Psychology. For history courses, the professor will determine whether it should be categorized as social science or humanities, but can't count it as both. The same rule applies to courses in Interdisciplinary departments such as BLST, SWAG, Religion, and AMST.T, SWAG, Religion, or AMST are determined by the professor.)

-Candidates for Latin Honors must write a two-semester thesis. In addition to the 9 required courses, honors candidates should enroll in LLAS 498 in the fall and LLAS 499 in the spring
